

2021-2022 Grants for Great Ideas

The Public Education Foundation of Marion County is proud to offer Grants for Great Ideas to fund inspiration and innovation in the classroom! Since its beginning in 1987, the Public Education Foundation's Grants for Great Ideas program has awarded more than 1,100 grants to teachers and principals in support of teaching – impacting more than 200,000 students. Over the course of this program, the foundation has given out $1,645,103 dollars in grants directly to our schools.

The Grants for Great Ideas program has enabled the Foundation– teacher-by-teacher – to build a community of learners capable of making real improvements in classrooms and schools.
