The Consortium of Florida Education Foundations recently elected Meghan Magamoll, Executive Director of the Public Education Foundation of Marion County, as a Member-at-Large. Meghan is one of five local education foundation leaders who, along with four statewide officers, govern the Consortium, a membership organization for Florida’s district-wide local education foundations.

Established in 1987, the Consortium is the membership organization for the education foundations aligned with Florida’s county-wide school districts. The mission of the Gainesville-based statewide organization is to facilitate partnerships and build the capacity of its members that collectively raise more than $85 million annually to innovate learning and support students and teachers through a variety of programs.
